LES SŒURS MÊME PAS PEUR

By Clément C. Fabre

Each adventure of Célestine and Suzanne, beyond confronting them with new fears, subtly raises awareness of childhood themes. This first volume, The Witch Under the Bed, is centered around empathy. When the two sisters discover that the witch also has fears, they manage to overcome their differences and realize they can very well become friends.

THE AUTHOR-ILLUSTRATOR

After 10 years in the film industry, Clément C. Fabre switched career as an illustrator and screenwriter in the mid-2000s. A versatile author, he is praised for his watercolor work in Le Mystère des papas and his autobiographical story Carole. He has also collaborated on several projects, including BFF, which was nominated for an Eisner Award in 2021..

KEY FEATURES

• Editorial : A series at children's level that provides the youngest with the tools to learn how to live with their fears and overcome them.

LA LÉGENDE DU BORDELUNE

By Elisabeth Belhache

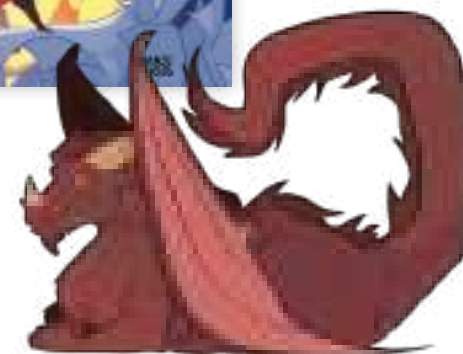

Margot is entering highschool two years early, but she also has to adapt to a new town, a new house and even a new half-sister, Abhaya.

But these problems soon become the least of her worries: on a casual stroll, she is intrigued by an old book on the monsters and legends of Bordeaux in a box, and finds herself absorbed in her reading. A few days later, faced with a very real creature that appears in front of her school, she realizes that by opening it, she has sealed her fate and that of Abhaya...

From now on, the two girls, who have nothing in common, are the Bordelune's guardians, and their mission is to defend the real world from imaginary monsters. Why them? Who are these monsters? Where do Abhaya's new powers come from?

Bon, ça parle de quoi ?

Des légendes
de la ville ?!

Hello ma petite !
Il est temps de rentrer
chez toi !

Peut-être une bibli ?
J'aimerais en savoir plus sur
un livre que j'ai trouvé...

À cette heure-ci, c'est chaud...

Mais il y a une librairie d'occasion pas loin. On peut aller voir là-bas.

Hummmmm...

Non, ça ne me dit rien !
Rien sur nos logiciels non plus.

Tu l'as trouvé où ?

Dans une boîte
à livres, hier.

Il m'a dit que ce livre
était sûrement trop vieux pour être répertorié...

Alors demande
à mon père !
C'est son taf,
ce genre de truc.

Je ne sais pas.
J'ai peur de l'embêter...

L'embêter ?
Il ADORE faire des exposés
gratuits sur l'histoire de Bordeaux.

Dit comme ça...

Attends, tu trouves pas que la rue est devenue soudainement...

... hyper calme ?

Hein ?

LES ENFANTS DE L'ARBRE

By Thierry Gaudin & Romain Ronzeau

This epic series blends futuristic adventure and ecological issues with intergenerational relationships.

In a dystopian future where the Earth has been ravaged by climatic disasters, Alex and Leïla have become grandparents. Sol, their grandson, is far different from the hero Alex was at his age... Rather frail, he lives in the shadow of his illustrious grandparents within the Tree Federation, an ecological society created by them. But one day, Sol discovers a very special kind of connection with the trees that surround him. Through them, he comes to the aid of three teenagers who have fled the City, the Federation's dark counterpart.

As he tries to integrate these three individuals, Sol gradually discovers himself, particularly through contact with Anima, a fierce, enigmatic young girl who seems to be hiding a dark secret.

THE AUTHOR

Thierry Gaudin has worked on numerous animated series (Zap Collège, Peter Pan, Heidi, etc.) as well as film and TV projects. He has also written a novel: Égaré ! published in 2018.

THE ILLUSTRATOR

Romain Ronzeau has illustrated over fifteen albums, including the graphic novels Love is in the air (Prix des Ados Livres & Musiques de Deauville in 2013). For Okapi magazine, he draws the adventure series Espions de Famille (Prix jeunesse du salon du livre de Nemours 2020).

FORTUNA

By Elisabeth Jammes

Born into a long line of diviners, Fortuna studies the magic of divination under the supervision of Belombra. Along with her classmates, the demonologist Belladona and the herbologist Mandragora, Fortuna hopes to write her name in The Grimoire, the book that lists all witches. With the exam approaching, the team moves into the House of Passage, a magical house dedicated to training apprentice wizards. But despite all her efforts, Fortuna feels she will fail the exam. When her mentor mysteriously disappears, Fortuna has to make a choice...

This learning comic book tackles a strong theme: witches, with a complex and endearing heroine. It deals with daily questions about fear, doubt, self-esteem, relationships with family and friends, mixed with a strong plot: mysteries, disappearances, pacts with demons, black magic...

THE AUTHOR-ILLUSTRATOR

Elisabeth Jammes is a French illustrator graduated from the Emile Cohl school. She collaborated with different authors for several publishers such as : Jungle, Clairedelune, Gulf Stream, Eyrolles, Rageot, and Bayard (for Astrapi magazine, J'aime lire max and «Magic Tree House»). She likes to immerse the reader in a well researched, documented and graphic universe, but always with humour!

LA FÉE DES GRAINS DE POUSSIÈRE

By Esmé Planchon and Jeanne Balas

The dust fairy collects stories about all the tiny little things in the world that nobody notices. With big glasses and a twinkle in her eye, she makes up exciting lives for all these miniature things. She calls the blades of grass by their names, she collects pieces of air and she knows your insect zodiac sign. She gets excited about a speck of dust's epic journey or a pebble's destiny...

THE AUTHOR

Esmé Planchon is an actress, performer, storyteller and children's book author. She created the dust fairy in 2018 for a show in the "Enfances" and "On Air" exhibitions at the Palais de Tokyo. The show was then performed at several festivals, before becoming a comic book.

THE ILLUSTRATOR

Jeanne Balas graduated from EESI in Angoulême with a master's degree in comics. In 2014, she published a short story in the first issue of Franky (et Nicole), a magazine published by Requins Marteaux. She also contributed to a digital comic book project, Le Secret des Cailloux qui brillent, from 2015 to 2018.

Zouk is a witch who lives with her parents, her cat Noyau, and her friend Mr. Potiron. She's not very obedient and she can't always be bothered to learn her magic spells properly... As a result, her spells trigger fun but sometimes quite tricky situations. But it's also a good way to learn while having fun. Zouk invites us into her world, a mix of daily life in a New York style town and magic tricks galore.

THE AUTHOR

Serge Bloch. Artist and author working for the press and publishing, especially comic books and children's books ("Max and Lili" series, published by Calligram). He's also an illustrator of cultural or societal subjects for major dailies and magazines in France, in Germany, and in the U.S.A.

THE ILLUSTRATOR

Nicolas Hubesch was born in 1969 and went to art school in Strasbourg. He works for the press, publishers such as Éditions Milan, and creates comics. In March 2010, he authored a comic for older readers: Back in town, with Dargaud.

ANATOLE LATUILE

By Anne Didier, Olivier Muller and Clément Devaux

Anatole Latuile, or the “serial gaffer” in all his glory...

A likeable trickster and a resourceful, if unsuccessful inventor, Anatole is his teacher's nightmare. Who knows what's going on in that brain of his?

THE AUTHORS

Siblings Anne Didier and Olivier Muller live near Paris. Together, they invent the adventures of Anatole Latuile and Émile et Margot. But each sibling also writes alone stories for Bayard Presse for publication in Mes premiers J'aime Lire, J'aime Lire and J'aime Lire Max.

THE ILLUSTRATOR

Born in 1979, Clément Devaux graduated from the École des Arts décoratifs in Paris. He has worked for several publishers: Nathan, Larousse, Gallimard, Le Seuil and Tourbillon. Anatole Latuile is his first comic book and a great success. He lives in the suburbs of Paris.

ARIOL

By Emmanuel Guibert and Marc Boutavant

Curious, inventive and energetic, Ariol is very much like any other little boy, except that he has blue skin, big ears and oversized glasses... His dreams and lively personality make him an original and endearing hero!

THE AUTHOR

Emmanuel Guibert. A fine technician, renowned amongst his peers as an innovative and pioneering cartoonist, Emmanuel Guibert is also a prolific scriptwriter for adults and children.

He created Sardine de l'espace with Joann Sfar and Ariol with Marc Boutavant. The last two children's series revealed his talent as a storyteller and narrator. His body of work was awarded the "Prix René Goscinny" in 2017 and he won the "Grand Prix du 47e Festival International de la Bande Dessinée d'Angoulême" in 2020.

THE ILLUSTRATOR

Marc Boutavant is an illustrator and an author of many books for children, including La grève de la vie with A. Couverture (Actes Sud Junior, Prix Chronos 2003), and the Mouk series (Éditions Cerf-Volant), then for Albin Michel Jeunesse. He draws Ariol with humor and a sensitivity that brings out the characters' personality (Prix Grande Ourse 2022).

LES AVENTURIERS DE L'INTERMONDE

By Jérôme Erbin and Auren

An adventure that takes place behind the scenes of History, reminiscent of Chronokids! Alex, Jie and Nephti are the same age. But they don't live in the same era! One is a 21st century Parisian, another a young Shaolin monk, and the third is a slave from Ancient Egypt. They join forces to protect the Interworld, a place beyond time and a closely guarded secret... now threatened by the dreadful Morok!

THE AUTHOR

Jérôme Erbin worked as a journalist and in video games before becoming a scenarist of animated series. Les aventuriers de l'Intermonde is his first comic.

THE ILLUSTRATOR

Auren works at Atelier l'Appendix. After a first experience in video games, he's now a comic artist and a regular contributor to Bayard Group's children's magazines.

SIMONE SE BASTONNE

By Anne Schmauch and Guillaume Long

Simone is an average kid, except...
1- she's a shrimp, 2- she's see-through and 3- she wants to fight! An off-beat everyday setting (school, family) in an underwater world: at Simone's you take survival courses, play hide-and-seek in the coral and ride manta rays!

A story by Anne Schmauch, the author of the novel with the same title, and illustrated by Guillaume Long's expressive, lively and colorful style (À boire et à manger: more than 65,000 copies sold).

THE AUTHOR

Anne Schmauch was born in 1978 in Metz and lives in Paris, where she studied History of Art many years ago. She writes stories, for the most part funny, for Bayard Presse, as well as for Rageot and Sarbacane.

THE ILLUSTRATOR

Guillaume Long is the author of the series *À boire

TOTO

By Franck Girard and Serge Bloch

Toto may be the class clown, but he's smart enough to know what's what. Whether he's late for school, early for recess, or just in time to fail the next quiz, he's always got something to say about it. Alas, even though his friends think he's funny, the adults in his life aren't laughing—mostly because they're not in on the jokes. No matter! Toto makes the best of it as he coasts through the day on his wit and good humor!

THE AUTHOR

Formerly the Director of Bayard Editions, Franck Girard created Éditions Tourbillon in 2002. Toto was one of the first characters developed under this imprint.

THE ILLUSTRATOR

Serge Bloch. Artist and author working for the press and publishing, especially comic books and children's books (Max and Lili series, published by Calligram). He's also an illustrator of cultural or societal subjects for major dailies and magazines in France, Germany and the U.S.A.

Ernest

Colette

1940. À cause de la guerre qui s'est déclarée contre l'Allemagne, Ernest et Colette vivent désormais en Normandie, chez leurs grands-parents, Papilou et Mamili. Depuis que les combats ont vraiment commencé, la vie est devenue difficile...

MUGUETTE !

Mince, où elle est...

Ah Ernest ! C'est toi ?

Pourquoi tu cries comme ça ?

Tout le monde quitte le village. Jean et sa mère sont déjà partis. Fernand aussi.

Tu ne peux pas rester ! Viens avec nous !

T'inquiète pas. Avec mon père, on va se cacher dans les bois. Et les Boches*, ils nous trouveront jamais !

Mais enfin ! C'est dangereux !

Allez, fiche le camp maintenant...

On est les Robinsons ! On se retrouvera !

Bon ben... Au revoir Mugnette et... Fais attention à toi !

Salut Ernest...

* Les Boches :

CHEZ PAPILOU ET MAMILI

N'insiste pas, René. Je reste !

Jeanne, je serais quand même plus tranquille si tu venais avec nous.

Pas question d'abandonner ma ferme.

Je vous confie Picotin. Il vous sera utile pour transporter tout ça...

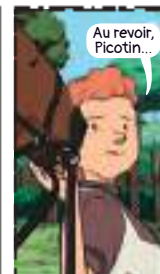

Ne prends que le nécessaire, hein !

Mais oui !

Soyez prudents sur la route mes amis. Je penserai bien à vous.

Sois prudente aussi ma Jeanne

Au revoir, Picotin...

Ça y est, les enfants, vous êtes prêts ?

Oui, Mamili !

Regarde, c'est la photo de mariage de papa et maman ! Tiens, prends-là !

Oh merci ! Je la garderai toute ma vie !

MORTELLE ADELE

By Mr Tan and Diane Le Feyer

Mortelle Adèle is an aspirational, empowering heroine, in step with her time.

Whether it's driving her parents mad, conducting lots of weird experiments or breaking Geoffroy's heart, Adèle's never short on ideas to wreak havoc everywhere she goes...

A dollop of black humor and a dash of tenderness, fasten your seatbelt, you're in for quite a ride!

THE AUTHOR

Antoine Dole, alias Mr Tan, has created several comic book universes for the publishing world and for children's newspapers and magazines. A prolific author, he's also written manga comics and numerous novels for teenagers and young adults, all widely acclaimed by critics, and for which he's won several awards. Beyond the storylines, Mr Tan therefore shaped Adèle's personality and sketched her very first outlines in his schoolbooks.

THE ILLUSTRATOR

Diane Le Feyer joined the "Mortelle Adèle" adventure in 2014, becoming the series' illustrator from volume 8 (Miss Prickly illustrated the seven first books in the series). She started out in video games and animation at Cartoon Saloon, before working on children's books in France and abroad. She has since collaborated with prestigious publishing houses such as Hallmark, HarperCollins, Mattel, Bayard Éditions, Scholastic, Igloo Books, Five Mile...
